Terms and conditions of the issue

General

This document should be read in conjunction with Financial Regulations 11-18 (inclusive) made under section 38(1) of the Exchequer Act 1975 (Act No. 66 of 1975).

Issue

Republic of South Africa 10,5% Internal Registered Bond 2025/26/27.
The loan will bear the bond code R186.

Authorisation

The issue was approved by the Minister of Finance on 28 February 1998 in terms of Section 19(1)(b) of the Exchequer Act, 1975, (Act 66 of 1975). In terms of Section 214(2)(b) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act 108 of 1996) and Section 20 of the Exchequer Act the repayment of the capital amount and the interest thereon shall be a direct charge against the National Revenue Fund and is deemed to have been appropriated by Law.

Purpose of the issue

The purpose of the issue is to raise funds to be used for the general purposes of the National Government.

Interest

A coupon of 10,50% per annum will be paid semi-annually in arrears until 21 December 2027.

Coupon payment dates will be 21 June and 21 December of each calendar year up to and including the redemption date, and the first payment will be made on 21 June 1998.

The Registers will be closed from 21 May to 21 June and 21 November to 21 December each year (all dates inclusive) or such shorter period as market conditions may allow to determine bondholders entitled to receive interest.

Interest will cease to accrue on the bond from the maturity date.

If the coupon payment date is not a Banking Day, payment will be made on the next Banking Day without payment of additional interest.

Interest will, subject to Exchange Control Regulations, be paid in the currency of the Republic of South Africa on the interest date to the bondholder registered at book close date by electronic transfer into the accounts of the bondholders specified in their payment instructions, unless in respect of individual bondholders, contrary instructions are agreed with the transfer secretaries in advance.

As at the date of this document and in terms of current legislation, interest derived from an investment in Government bonds is fully taxable for residents while non-residents are exempted.

Redemption of Capital

The repayment of the capital shall be made in three equal amounts on the following dates:

21 December 2025

21 December 2026

21 December 2027

One third of the nominal value of the loan, rounded off to the nearest R1,00 will be redeemed on 21 December 2025, after which no further interest will accrue on the said amount. New bond certificates will be issued for the two-thirds balance in equal proportions with redemption dates on 21 December 2026 and 21 December 2027 and with a coupon rate of 10,50%.

No redemption payment in respect of bonds held by individual bondholders will be made unless the certificate in respect of the bond has been surrendered to the transfer secretaries.

Redemption payments will, subject to Exchange Control Regulations, be made in the currency of the Republic of South African on the redemption date by electronic transfer into the accounts of the bondholders specified in their payment instructions, unless, in respect of individual bondholders, contrary instructions are agreed with the transfer secretaries in advance.

If the payment date is not a Banking Day payment will be made on the next succeeding Banking Day without payment of interest.

Bonds are not repayable prior to the maturity date.

Trading

The bond is listed on the Bond Exchange (under the bond code R186).

Method of issue

The bond is issued through a panel of primary dealers by invitations to tender at auctions.

Exchange Control Regulations

Former residents of the Common Monetary Area (being the Republic of South Africa, Namibia and the Kingdoms of Swaziland and Lesotho) may use blocked funds to acquire Republic of South Africa bonds subject to South African Exchange Control Regulations.

All payments in respect of application for Republic of South Africa bonds by non-residents must be made through an authorized dealer in foreign exchange.

Republic of South Africa bonds issued to a non-resident individual bondholder whose registered address is outside the Common Monetary Area will be endorsed “non-resident” and will be sent to the authorised dealer through which the payment was made for their control in terms of the South African Exchange Control Regulations.

Stamp duty

In terms of current legislation, as at the date of this terms of issue, South African government bonds are transferable free of stamp duty and registration charges. Any future statutory changes will be for the cost of bondholders as recorded in the registers at such time.

Settlements

Bonds are negotiated on a yield to maturity basis. The amount payable is based on the clean (cash price) of the investment plus the accrued interest calculated until the agreed settlement date (dirty price). Settlements take place electronically and via a settlement bank. Rolling settlements of T + 3 have been effected by the Bond Exchange since 17 November 1997. Settlement agents will follow the electronic settlement procedures prescribed by the Rules of the Bond Exchange when making interest and capital payments. The Rules are available on request from the Bond Exchange.

Transfers

Transfers of this bond will be effected by deed registered in the books of the transfer secretaries where the register of bonds are kept and as prescribed by Section 135 of the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973).

The Central Depository, which holds scrip in custody and facilitates transfer of ownership electronically within the depository system and the individual bondholders, will be the registered bondholders. The transfer secretaries will list in their register, the Central Depository and the individual bondholders. The settlement agents will keep registers of those bondholders in the Central Depository.

Bond certificates shall be issued by the transfer secretaries to the transferees for the full amount transferred into their own names.

Bond Exchange listing

The South African government bonds are listed on the Bond Exchange as an approved financial instrument in terms of the Financial Markets Control Act, No. 55 of 1989 and the Rules of the Bond Exchange.
